

Tuition Assistance Application for A Framework For Wise Education® Training

We at Creative Lives Inc. are happy to announce full or partial need-based Tuition Assistance to learners in our training in Ellen Tadd's Framework For Wise Education. At this time, our need-based Tuition Assistance is financed by annual and biannual funders and not a fixed endowment. As such, the funds allotted to Assistance vary from term to term.

If you would like to enroll in Foundations-1: Ellen Tadd's Framework For Wise Education or Foundations-2: Applying A Framework For Wise Education but find it cost-prohibitive, you may apply for a full or partial Tuition Assistance as subject to the parameters outlined below.

Tuition Assistance is processed through Creative Lives Inc. directly on behalf of a recipient. At no time will said recipient be given funds directly with the expectation that said funds would be applied to enrolling in a Framework Training. As such, Tuition Assistance is seen as a gift and not subject to taxation.

If a recipient chooses to withdraw from their training after the official drop date, the recipient is responsible for reimbursing Creative Lives Inc. the total amount of the Assistance awarded.

To apply for Tuition Assistance, one must:

- Fill out the attached form
- Submit two letters of reference
- Submit a 300-word essay discussing:
 - Why they wish to enroll in the training
 - Why they are deserving of financial assistance
- Attend a Virtual interview with the director of Creative Lives

Although this is a need-based Tuition Assistance, Creative Lives Inc. does not require financial records. Rather, we presume applicants operate in good faith regarding their financial needs. If an applicant's financial need is in doubt, additional paperwork may be required to prove said need.
